NEWS LETTERS FROM BULLETIN REPRESENTATIVES.

WILLIMANTIC ABUSED PARENTS.

Liquor Caused South Willington Son to Forget His Duty.

Attorney Samuel B. Harvey, of this city Wednesday appeared for George Knight of South Willington, charged with assault on his parents, intoxication and breach of the peace. The state was represented by Attorney Robert H. Fisk of Stafford. It was claimed by the state that Knight struck his father with a wrench and threw a knife at his mother while under the influence of liquor and caused a general disturbance at his parents' home. The case was tried before Justice of the Peace Charles Knight was adjudged guilty and a fine of $14 and costs with two months in jail was imposed. Attorney Harvey gave notice of an appeal to the superior court.

OBITUARY.

Silas H. Dewey, a Native of Norwich. News of the death of Silas Henry Dewey at the home of his son, John S. Dewey, on Thursday morning, was received in this city with sincere regret. Death resulted from an illness of several weeks with liver trouble.

Deceased was a native of Norwich, but had spent the greater part of his life in Lebanon, about a mile from Cheshire in that state. About twenty years ago he went to Canada, where he made his home until his health failed a few months ago. Mr. Dewey was a member of Eastern Star lodge of Masons of this city. There survive four children, George, a physician in Nebraska, Miss Lucina of Rockville, John S. of Granby and DuMont Dewey of New York, and a sister, wife of Congressman E. Stevens Henry. Deceased was 73 years old.

STAFFORD SPRINGS

Death of Mrs. Alice Howard Spedding—Camping Party at Lake Mashapaug. The death of Mrs. Alice Howard Spedding, aged 88, occurred at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Francis H. Spedding, Wednesday morning. She had been a resident of Stafford Springs for fifty-eight years and was the oldest living member of the Congregational church. She was twice married and is survived by three sons besides the daughter, Mrs. Spedding, with whom she lived. The sons are James J. Fliton of this town, Ephraim H. of Lowell, Mass., and W. H. Spedding of New York.

To Exchange Pulpits. Rev. A. B. Todd of the Baptist church in Stafford Hollow will exchange pulpits with Rev. H. A. Blake of the Congregational church Sunday. Vacation Notes. Mrs. W. D. Heald is the guest of relatives in Marlboro, Mass. William J. Hanley has been spending a few days in Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Thompson of Danbury arrived in the city Thursday to be the guests of relatives. Mr. Thompson is a brother of Burt G. and C. M. Thompson. He is ex-president of the National Roque association and an expert at the game himself. During his stay in this city some interesting contests are expected that will be played on A. D. Spellman's court on Pleasant street. There are a number of crack players in the city and all are anxious to try to take a fall out of Mr. Thompson. He will meet and match their skill, it is believed.

Steeple Tom a Resident Here. "Steeple Tom," who spent some little time here a couple of years ago, but who has been making his home in Boston, has moved to Willimantic, and is residing on Rayne's court, off Walnut street. He is planning to work in nearby surrounding cities and towns and to do anything in his line in this city also. He is an adept at his calling and while here before excited the curiosity of a few people by the magnitude of his daring.

Carrying School Children. The transportation committee of the town school committee will meet at the office of W. D. Grant on Valley street Saturday afternoon at two o'clock. The meeting is held for the purpose of receiving bids and awarding the contracts for carrying the school children during the fiscal year beginning September 7, 1939.

Personals. Miss Alma Dion is the guest of Hartford friends. Sheriff William B. Sprague of Andover was in town Thursday. Mrs. Albert Bates is visiting friends in different Rhode Island cities.

George W. Hickey and Capt. Eugene J. Ashton were recent visitors in Stafford. Miss Ruby Higgins of South Coventry called on friends in town Thursday.

Sheriff Preston B. Sibley of Danielson was in the city for a brief stay Thursday.

Miss Priscilla Fuller of Hampton is the guest of friends in this city for a short stay.

Arthur H. Burdick has been spending a few days at G. A. Walker's in Gurleyville.

Mrs. George S. Elliott is in Adams, Mass. called there by the illness of her brother.

Robert and Louis Flocken have returned from a visit with friends in Danielson.

Howard W. Morse left Thursday for a visit with friends in Middletown and New Britain.

Edward O'Brien, a painter, sustained a sprained wrist by falling from a ladder this week.

Dr. C. E. Simonds and family left Thursday for Pleasure beach for a stay of several days.

Miss Maude Harvey of Leonard Bridge was the guest of friends in Willimantic Thursday.

Mrs. Louis H. Arnold of North street is entertained her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Collins of Illinois.

Miss Mabel Lathrop and Master Russell Norton are guests of friends and relatives in Brooklyn.

La Belle Leonora of Providence, who sang for a year at the Scenic Temple in this city, was the guest of friends in town Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. David Mathewson and daughter, with Mr. and Mrs. Fred LeClair, leave Sunday for a two weeks' outing in camp at Coventry lake.

Dr. C. Morris Hatheway of Hartford, son of Amos M. Hatheway of this city, left Thursday to camp out in the woods with Willimantic and Boston friends until August 1.

Joseph Robinson, managing editor of The Philadelphia Inquirer and one of the oldest newspaper men, in point of continuous service, in Pennsylvania, was elected honorary vice president of the Pen and Pencil club, of which he has been a member for many years. He was elected the late Alexander K. McClure in that position.

The New Haven Journal-Courier, anticipating the time when Waterbury is a through line from New York to Boston, declares with somewhat dubious courage, that New Haven will not be entirely scratched off the map of Connecticut. It will escape at least the degradation which New Haven and Hartford both have been fearing these many years—that of becoming a way station. It simply wouldn't be on the main line at all.—Waterbury American.

The Trip Was All Right. James J. Hill comes back an optimist from a month's fishing in Labrador, declaring that though the crop of fish is a summer it will bring a higher price than many a bumper crop; that this will help manufacturing and that there is no menace ahead to the business outlook. A fishing trip is good for nothing that does not put a man in an optimistic mood.

No Choice. The old story of the husband who said: "Go it, woman; go it, bear," seems to be repeated in actual life at Konkake, Ill., where J. B. Saylor was shot dead by a Dr. Miller, having been attacked by the husband for too great fondness for his wife. "It was none of my affair," said the wife at the coroner's inquest. "I just let them fight it out."

A Puzzle. Now that the June bride is back at home again, she is trying to figure out how she is to keep house with twenty-three pickle dishes, seventeen salt and pepper sets, seven chafing dishes, etc.—Portland Express.

A Loss of Millions. Danbury figures that it lost $10,000,000 in the recent hat shop strike. A pretty big price to pay for a difference of opinion.—Hartford Post.

CHILDREN SEEK $500,000.

Relatives of Patrick J. Cronan Want Administrator of Estate. Judge John P. Studley of the New Haven probate court has received an application signed by the four children of the late Patrick J. Cronan, paper box manufacturer, asking for a hearing on the setting aside of the will of their father and for the appointment of an administrator pending a settlement.

Mr. Cronan died two weeks ago, leaving an estate of half a million dollars, the principal of which, according to the will, is to go to the grandchildren, yet unborn. He leaves to his four children the income of the estate and the use of the home in that city. The children are Lieut. William F. Cronan, U. S. A., James F. Cronan of Boston, Urban Cronan and Mrs. Genevieve C. Henderson, wife of Lieutenant Henderson, of the navy.

$1,000,000 A YEAR Paid by State for Charitable and Penal Institutions. The report of the state board of charities for the two years ended Sept. 30, 1938, gives the usual details as to the work of the department during the two years, with facts and figures showing the condition of the charitable and penal institutions of the state. The report says that in the state, with an estimated population in 1938 of 1,025,000, there is maintained for the restraint and care of its delinquent, defective and dependent classes 180 institutions, as follows:

For criminals and misdemeanors 11, juvenile offenders 2, young women offenders 2, insane 15, feeble minded 1, deaf 2, blind 1, sick and injured 23, old soldiers 3, dependent children 8, dependent poor 74, old people, private provision, 19, children, private provision, 16.

Dental Commissioners Elect Officers. The annual meeting of the state dental commission was held in the office of Dr. Gilbert M. Griswold, recorder of the board, in Hartford, Saturday evening, with all members present. Dr. H. G. Provost of Westford was re-elected president and Dr. M. Griswold recorder. As a result of the recent examination held by the board, when 46 candidates were examined, it was announced that 28 were qualified. Seven failed and 13 were conditioned.

Might Change His Luck. Walter Wellman's North Pole expedition has received so many setbacks it seems there would be a greater chance for him to reach the South Pole.—New York World.

Doctor Under Suspicion. Dr. Elliot says that marriage is woman's best career, but he is talking now for the Ladies' Home Journal or just giving advice.—Detroit Free Press.

Jokes Usually Practical. No matter how much Mr. Harriman may joke, there will always be a suspicion that the joke is to have a practical termination.—Washington Post.

Has Nothing on Aldrich. In view of the proceedings Senator Aldrich is getting, his friend Roosevelt might at least send him a rhinoceros hide to wear.—New York Mail.

Job for Jim Ham Lewis. The Kaiser went when an American attaché left Berlin. Cheer up! There are others here who look well in uniform.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Has Grown Since. To look at Beverly, Mass., on the map one might think it wouldn't be large enough to hold the president.—Pittsburgh Post.

CLIPPED FROM EXCHANGES. There are 39 different kinds of new roses for this year alone in England, where rose culture abounds.

The figures of the London police courts show a very decided increase during recent years in serious crimes.

The greatest cotton crop in the United States was that of 1938, which, on the farm, was valued at $723,000,000.

A government fuel-testing plant has been established in Canada, with the idea of developing the use of peat as fuel. There are great quantities of this material in Canada.

Former Governor Folk of Missouri has returned to St. Louis from a lecture tour of three months, during which he covered more than 25,000 miles, delivered 90 lectures and made more than $20,000. He acted as his own manager. The ex-governor had a sliding scale for his lectures. For some of his talks he received $200 each, for a few a little under that amount and for some, more.

Miss Mabel K. Babcock of Wellesley Hills, Mass., was the only woman to receive the M. S. degree at the recent commencement of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. She is a graduate of Wellesley college and took a degree in architecture at the institute of technology last year. Four other women received degrees from the department of architecture of the institute this year.

Few American women have received more attention in official society in Europe than Mrs. Meyer, wife of the ambassador to the Vatican, who is now in Rome. She was recently received by the queen of Italy and remained for some time with her majesty, who was very cordial and expressed herself as having a pleasant memory of Secretary Meyer as United States ambassador and herself as the American hostess.

Johnny Lookup, whose real name is Daniel J. Gallagher, has been one of the best known residents of Greenwich village in Manhattan for more than 30 years. In his youth his eyes began to turn downward and in order to see he had to tilt his head back; hence his nickname. His one joy in life has been following the funerals of men of mark who lived and died in the region south of Fourteenth street.

At the beginning of this fiscal year Cuba established a bureau of information, and President Gomez has appointed Leon J. Canova, an American newspaper man, who has lived in Cuba eleven years, director. Persons wishing information concerning the country's resources or business opportunities are asked to write to Mr. Canova at the office of the department of agriculture, commerce and labor, Havana, Cuba.
